

In this moment of stillness and peace, I am conscious that God is Everyone and Everything that is – and I am one with the Power and Presence that breathes me and beats my heart. I remember that I am an eternal being on the pathway to endless unfoldment, never less, but always more of myself.

My life is dynamic, forever creating, forever alive, awake and aware.

The Power of God within me sings the song of eternity and I am completely in tune with the music of the Divine.

As I listen, I move with ease and grace into the rhythm of the Universe. I am aware of the promise that all that the Father has is mine.

I know that God directs everything that I do and I am at home on a pathway of peace and joy.

In this Powerful Force, I claim the treasures of the universe as mine. I go forward, living largely and greatly, ever supported by the Divine. I hold fast to Its hand, open to all the beauty, sweetness and security from care or worry that It provides. Everything I require to become the grandest version of the greatest vision of myself is within me now. I am unstoppable.

I release myself into the Energy of all good, knowing beyond all doubt that God is at work in my life. And I say, “Thank you Holy Spirit for the manifestation of my completely abundant life.

I am richly blessed.

And so it is!

Blessings on your journey to an abundant life!
