

God is all there is. There is but One Power, Intelligence and Consciousness in the Universe – and Everything in the visible and invisible world is born of It.

I know that this Power expresses in you, for you are God's precious child. In this Holy moment, I know that whatever the appearance of imperfect health shifts into radiant life-giving health.

We all know that anything we see or experience on this earthly plane has no power that is greater than the Invisible which governs all.

Right here and right now, I declare that the Power and Presence of God is the full activity in your life. I know that every cell of your body is filled with Divine healing energy

I know that you feel this Power in your life and I know that your body and mind are filled with the conscious awareness of God. Your precious heart is overflowing with God and with all Good. I know that God is an unstoppable force for this good and that this divine action is sped up now. NOTHING can stop this healing power. The words - COMPLETE HEALTH - are the words that have meaning now. I speak my word into Law that these words take charge of your healing process and that all is well: That complete health is your divine birth right.

I know that during the days ahead, you move through any treatment that is required and that the inner peace of Spirit wells up inside you. You feel the Power and the Love and surrender to it and just allow yourself to dissolve into Godstuff, knowing that the healing is complete. God's work is truly magnificent!

And as I know this for you, I know that you have peace in your heart and that you are cradled in the Love of the Divine.

You feel this love pouring through – through you – the love of God and the Love of all of us who hold you in prayer and consciousness.

All your needs are met.

The Divine that is all things is fully in charge here and all is well.

I am grateful to know this magnificent Power in my life.

And so it is.
