

Prayer for Relationship

Deep in my heart is the desire to share my life in loving relationship with another. Knowing that God is all there is, I know this Power is active in my life and what I see in the invisible realm of my mind and my imagination is moving into form.

I now attract into my life my perfect partner, one who shares my deepest beliefs, my interests, my desire to be the best version of me that I can be.

I am completely supported in love and life by this beautiful being. Together we create a family of loving friends with whom we share love, joy and laughter as well as a deep appreciation for all the Universe has in store.

We are connected at the deepest levels of our souls and yet we are strong individuals who respect one another's differences as well as those qualities that are the same.

The deep light of love that abides within us shines forth into the world, lighting our way.

I know that our journey together has begun. As Rumi wrote:

The minute I heard my first love story,

I started looking for you, not knowing

How blind that was.

Lovers don't finally meet somewhere:

They're in each other all along.

The time has come for us to be revealed to one another. I declare it to be so and I know that the Divine that is indwelling in us all makes it so.

I joyfully release my word into the Mind of God, knowing all is made manifest now.

And so it is!
